Columbine Dachshund Club is dedicated to educating present and potential dachshund owners about their breed.

The club strives to support all activities that epitomizes the strengths of the dachshund breed including:

- Conformation – the continued effort to produce dogs that meet AKC breed standards.
- Earth Dog Trials – events that support what the breed was developed for; underground varmint hunting.
- Tracking Events – testing the nose of the hound and its ability to follow the trail of a rabbit.
- Agility – the ability for owner and hound to work together as a team in maneuvering through an obstacle course within a given time.
- Companion Dog – to support and share member’s efforts to share the joy and happiness this breed can bring to the elderly and sick.
- Rescue – to support members in the use of dachshunds as rescue dogs.
- Obedience – to encourage and support the art of obedience training for this intelligent and strong willed breed of dog!
- The health and well being of the dachshund.

All persons wishing to become a member of the Columbine Dachshund Club must be sponsored by a club member in good standing.¹
